

Greetings from Poptown Records!

Go Kat Go Radio presents The Scared Stiffs live with Ghouls Night Out on Saturday April 15 at Rudy's in New Haven, CT. This should be a real howl! For more info check out www.rudysnewhaven.com and www.windfall-go.com/gokatgoradio

The new Poptown horror compilation, GHOULS GONE WILD, originally scheduled for release on 5/16 is going to be delayed a few weeks. The new anticipated release date is June 5. The album features The Groovie Ghoulies, Dictators Thunderbolt Paterson & Ross the Boss, Ozzy/Gillan guitarist Bernie Torme, Electric Frankenstein, The Voluptuous Horror of Karen Black, The Scared Stiffs, She Wolves, Helios Creed, Psycho Charger, The Other, Rezurex, Calabrese, Thee Merry Widows, Frankenstein, The Mugshots and more!

We're glad to let you know that the Poptown Records website is getting a much needed facelift. The new address will remain www.PoptownRecords.com, but everything else about it will be improved. Look for the updated site to be on line by 5/1/06!

Our new friends, Thee Merry Widows are working hard to push their new CD, Revenge Served Cold. You can still catch 'em on the road with Demented Are Go on...

April 6, The Bouquet, Boise Idaho

April 7, Dante's, Portland, Or.

April 8, Studio Seven, Seattle, Wa.

April 9, Hells Kitchen, Tacoma, Wa.

Our Friends at Wild West Productions announce their intent to bring six string slinger Bernie Torme and his new band, GMT, to America for a tour of the US in September of 2006. GMT includes drummer Robin Guy (Rachel Stamp, Bruce Dickinson), bassist John McCoy (Gillan, Mammoth). Stay tuned to www.wildwestrocks.com for more details.
