

It's been a great week for Ross the Boss and the lads of Thunderboss! The CD, which was written and produced by Dictators drummer J.P. 'Thunderbolt' Patterson is quickly gaining momentum! Check out the review in this week's Village Voice <http://www.villagevoice.com/music/0643,smith,74843,22.html>

Also out this week, is J.P.'s interview for Vic Firth sticks. Check it out at www.vicfirth.com/artists/jp_patterson.html.

Thunderboss will be performing in New York City on Tuesday November 21 at Don Hill's (www.DonHills.com). It a specially scheduled early show! Doors open at 7pm and the band will go on promptly at 8pm (followed by the Scared Stiffs at 9pm and the She Wolves at 10pm).

For more Thunderboss info, reviews and sound clips, visit www.PoptownRecords.com